RUETER-HESS RESERVOIR GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

These Rules and Regulations apply and refer to the Rueter-Hess Reservoir (“Reservoir”), as well as the Parker Water & Sanitation District (PWSD) owned property adjacent to the Reservoir located north of Hess Road including all open space, the dam, special use sites, natural areas, and trails, (together with the Reservoir, the “Property or Properties”)

The Property is owned, maintained and managed by the Parker Water and Sanitation District (PWSD) for water storage. The Rueter-Hess Recreation Authority (“Authority”) is a multi-entity authority which operates and maintains the recreational facilities, and manages the recreational services and programs at the Property.

The Reservoir serves as a primary drinking water source. NO bodily contact is allowed with the water at the Reservoir unless authorized and permitted by PWSD and the Authority. Programs and events must be approved through the established application and permitting process with the Authority. Access to the Property is allowed only at the times provided by the Authority for general access areas and is not allowed on the reservoir portion of the Property without an approved Authority permit or through an Authority sponsored program.

The Property is largely not improved and users should expect that hazards will be present. Please exercise caution when using the Property. Examples of common hazards may include, but are not limited to, broken glass and/or other sharp objects, discarded reservoir construction materials, man-made and natural steep slopes, deep water, cold water, thin ice, fish and animal carcasses, wild animals and snakes. No lifeguards, rescue services, security services, water testing or any other public safety measures will be provided. All activities must be in compliance with local, state and federal regulations.

The use of the Property is strictly at the User’s Own Risk.

In the event of an accident of any kind, the User shall be solely responsible for any and all occurrences, claims and liabilities. By entry onto the Property, request of an access permit or by use of the Property, the user agrees to abide by these Rules and Regulations as may be modified or amended, and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Parker Water & Sanitation District and the Rueter Hess Recreation Authority for any claims or causes of action arising or claimed based on injury, loss, or damage to property or death that arise or are alleged to arise from users access to and use of the Property. Nothing in these Rules and Regulations shall be deemed to be a waiver of the protections granted to PWSD and the Authority under the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act.

Property Usage

Open space, picnic shelters, trails, facilities, etc. are available for use only during the posted days and times specified by the Authority. A violation of any posted days and times usage of any amenity or property may result in the Authority or PWSD filing trespass or other appropriate charges, and may result in immediate expulsion from any Property of the offending person(s).

Use of any open space, picnic shelters, trails, facilities etc. that are outside of the posted rules and regulations may only occur by an approved permit on a case-by-case basis. It is a violation of these Rules and Regulations for any person(s) to occupy or encroach on an area when such area has been reserved with a permit unless as authorized by the Authority. Failure to obtain a permit, violations of the terms of a permit from the Authority, or a violation of these Rules and Regulations may result in the Authority or PWSD filing trespass or other appropriate charges against, and may result in immediate expulsion from the Property of the offending person(s). Violations of these Rules and Regulations may also result in the Authority or PWSD seeking fines, restitution, or damages from the responsible parties for any damages resulting from such violation.

The Authority expressly reserve the right to revise, amend or modify these Rules and Regulations without notice. PWSD may also implement additional restrictions or usage rules regarding the Property. The Authority may also grant exceptions, waivers or modifications of these Rules and Regulations on a case by case basis pursuant to a written permit issued to any person without notice and may deny same in their sole discretion.

Schedule

The weather dependent recreation season runs from May through September for the Reservoir Property south of Hess Road. Hours and operating days for the Reservoir Property south of Hess Road are determined by the Authority and will be posted on The Authority website and at the front gate of the Reservoir Property. The incline challenge and trails located on the north side of the Property, north of Hess Road are open daily, sunrise to sunset, year-round. A violation of any posted days and times of usage of any amenity or property may result in the Authority or PWSD filing trespass or other appropriate charges against, and may result in immediate expulsion from the Property of the offending person(s).

Unless expressly authorized by the Authority or PWSD, access to any of the Properties is prohibited between sunset and sunrise.

It is unlawful to exceed the maximum number of authorized people and activities on the properties as permitted by the Authority or designee. Temporary closures of the Properties may occur at any time if deemed necessary by PWSD or Authority for any reason.

Unauthorized or Restricted Areas

It is unlawful for a person or persons to enter into or remain on any undesignated area or restricted areas. All signage regarding access to and use of the Property must be obeyed at all times. Any PWSD or Authority employee/representative or designee shall have the authority to close the reservoir or any associated open space area to any or all users, or to limit the number of watercraft when deemed necessary for the safety, protection and welfare of the public.

All person(s) are prohibited from engaging in or conducting any activity on the Properties contrary to any signage, permanent or temporary, posted by PWSD, Authority or designee. A violation of any posted signs or instructions by PWSD, Authority, or designee, may result in the Authority or PWSD filing trespass or other appropriate charges against, and may result in immediate expulsion from the Property of the offending person(s), and may also result in the Authority or PWSD seeking fines, restitution, or damages from the responsible parties for any damages resulting from such violation or act.

Damage to Property

No person shall alter or damage in any manner the Properties, or the Authority or PWSD facilities. Alter is defined as, but not limited to, any modification of existing lands or vegetation from its existing condition including, any form of mowing, removal, modifying, digging, landscaping, constructing of any improvements, painting, trenching or placement of structures, signs, roadways, trails, enclosures, markers or other alterations.

No person shall remove, alter, destroy, mutilate, deface or damage any building, structure, facility, sign, marker, rock, vegetation, or other object located on the Properties.

No live vegetation or seeds shall be brought into the Properties or be introduced onto any part of the Properties.

An owner of an animal that destroys, damages, or injures land, property or a facility or area owned by the Authority or PWSD shall be responsible for damage caused by the animal. Owner is defined as any individual in possession of, keeping, or having custody or control of any animal.

Hazardous or Reckless Activities

No person shall engage in an activity, whether allowed by these Rules or Regulations or not, in a reckless manner which constitutes a hazard to or endangers any person or the Property or which is deemed to threaten the safety of the participant or other persons. Determination of hazardous or reckless activities or behavior shall be in the sole discretion of the Authority, PWSD or their designated representatives.
